

10,000 BC (WILDER)

Wild Neolithic Culture

10,000BC \rightarrow 8,000BC

12,000 \rightarrow 10,000 yrs.

The Cave bear died out.

12,000 yrs ago = 10,000 BC

LLANO MAN (TX) hunted huge mammals on the High Plains of West TX.

12,000 yrs ago \approx 10,000 BC

In the earliest post-glacial period in Scandinavia men were moving over its habitable areas, food-gathering, hunting fowling, and fishing, leaving their mark on a flint here, an antler there.

By 10,000 BC

Temperature of northern hemisphere had increased sufficiently for the ice to melt away in Britain.

Almost all of Ireland had been covered by ice.

12,000 yrs ago = 10,000 BC

The earliest animal definitely tamed, and modified as a result of its domestication was the wolf, becoming the dog - around 12,000 yrs ago in south-western Asia, where it seems to have been a pet and a hunting companion. Goats and sheep were next;

10,000 BC

Wooden reaping knives set with flint blades used in Palestine

C 10,000 BC

Zero was invented (discovered)
Hindu priests.

C10, 176E

Beginning of 4th warm period
(includes present time)

Men hunt: women learn to plant seed and to harvest.

Wooden dwellings along streams
Pile dwelling in Swamps Lakes

Agriculture leads to permanent settlement and towns: Primitive Commerce.

was among Communities Rise of nomad tribes; herdsmen, in country east of the Danube.
Polished flint and stone tools. Tools ground on whetstones: Earliest use of plow.
Pottery made.

12,000 yrs ago = 10,000 B C

Earth's climate began to warm melting glaciers and bringing an end to last ice age. This brought floods.

People learned to train & breed
their pets

Women learned to weave

10,000 BC

Man reaches the tip of South America

10,000 - 9000 BC

the dog is domesticated in mesopotamia (IRAQ) and CANAAN
(Israel)

10,000-5000 BC

MESOLITHIC Age

Prehistoric period that marked the period of transition between the Old Stone Age and the New Stone Age.

12,000 years ago = 10,000 BC

Invention of bow